CURRENT EXHIBITS:

FIRST FLOOR EXHIBITIONS

Maya: Heart of Sky, Heart of Earth, a brilliant rainforest graces the apse wall, below, a sacred ceiba tree rises, connecting the underworld, earth, and heaven. Made possible by a generous donation from Las Patronas, Stela D-recast by sculptor Michael Neff – stands majestically alongside its companion, Stela C.

NEW! Hecho en México: Mexican Folk Art celebrates Mexico's diversity and culture through art and pictures. The goal of this major exhibition is to educate the public about the magnificence of Mexican folk art with the Museum's large 600-piece collection of hand-carved animals, vibrant ceramics and textiles, whimsical masks, and background.

NEW! Navajo Code Talkers, an exhibit honoring all Native Americans who have served and continue to serve in the U.S. Armed Forces. Featured in the display is a Congressional Medal of Honor awarded to the late Johnny R. Manuelito, Sr., one of the 29 original World War II Navajo Code talkers.

Demonstrations Wed. through Sun.: Weaving & Tortilla making

SECOND FLOOR EXHIBITIONS

NEW! Footsteps Through Time: Four Million Years of Human Evolution feature five galleries filled with more than a hundred touchable replicas of early humans and primates. The exhibit offers an in-depth and intriguing look at human evolution, which helps visitors answer age old questions, including time, genetics, and the environment.

Life and Death on the Nile: Sungods and Mummies in Ancient Egypt features animal and human mummies. Included in this exhibition are rare artifacts from the Museum's Scripps collections of Amarna, home of Nefertiti and Ahkenaten.

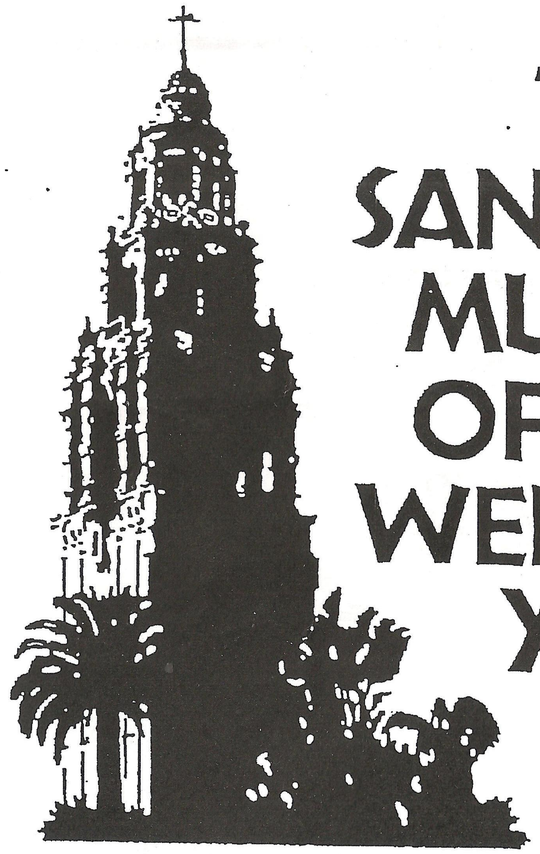
Children's Discovery Center (CDC), Discover Egypt takes children on an interactive journey to ancient Egypt. In this exhibit, learn and experience royal and ordinary Egyptian lives in the 18th Dynasty. Visit a noble's home, a village market, a mummy's tomb and a present day archaeological field camp.

Kumeyaay, Native Californians portrays the life ways of some of Balboa Park's earlier inhabitants through exhibition of subsistence activities and traditional arts.

From the Hands and Hearts of the Indigenous Peoples of the Greater Southwest highlights the enduring traditions of Native Americans using displays of material culture with an emphasis on decorative arts.

Zuni Fetish Carving: Past to Present explains fetish history, symbolism, process, and materials. In partnership with the Zuni A:shiwi A:wan Museum and Zuni fetish carvers.

Inquisition: Torture and Intolerance explores man's inhumanity to man. More than one hundred original pieces are on display, including dozens of macabre devices gathered from throughout Europe. Located in Evernham Hall, extra admission fee. Not recommended for children under 12 years of age. Adults $8. Seniors (Over 65) $7. Minors (6-17) $5.

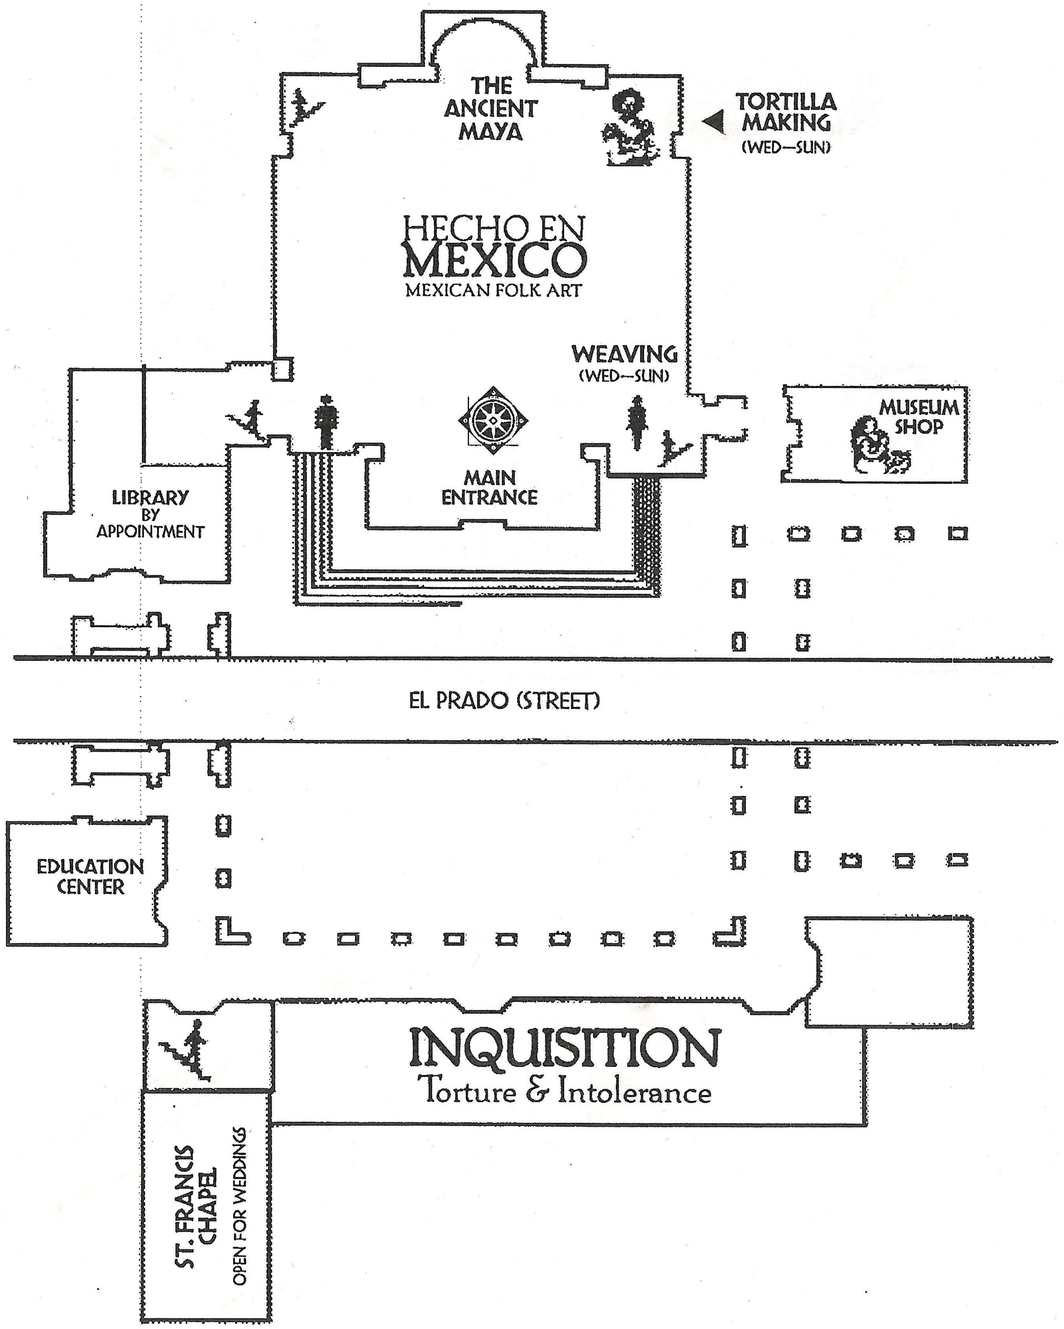


THE SAN DIEGO MUSEUM OF MAN WELCOMES YOU!

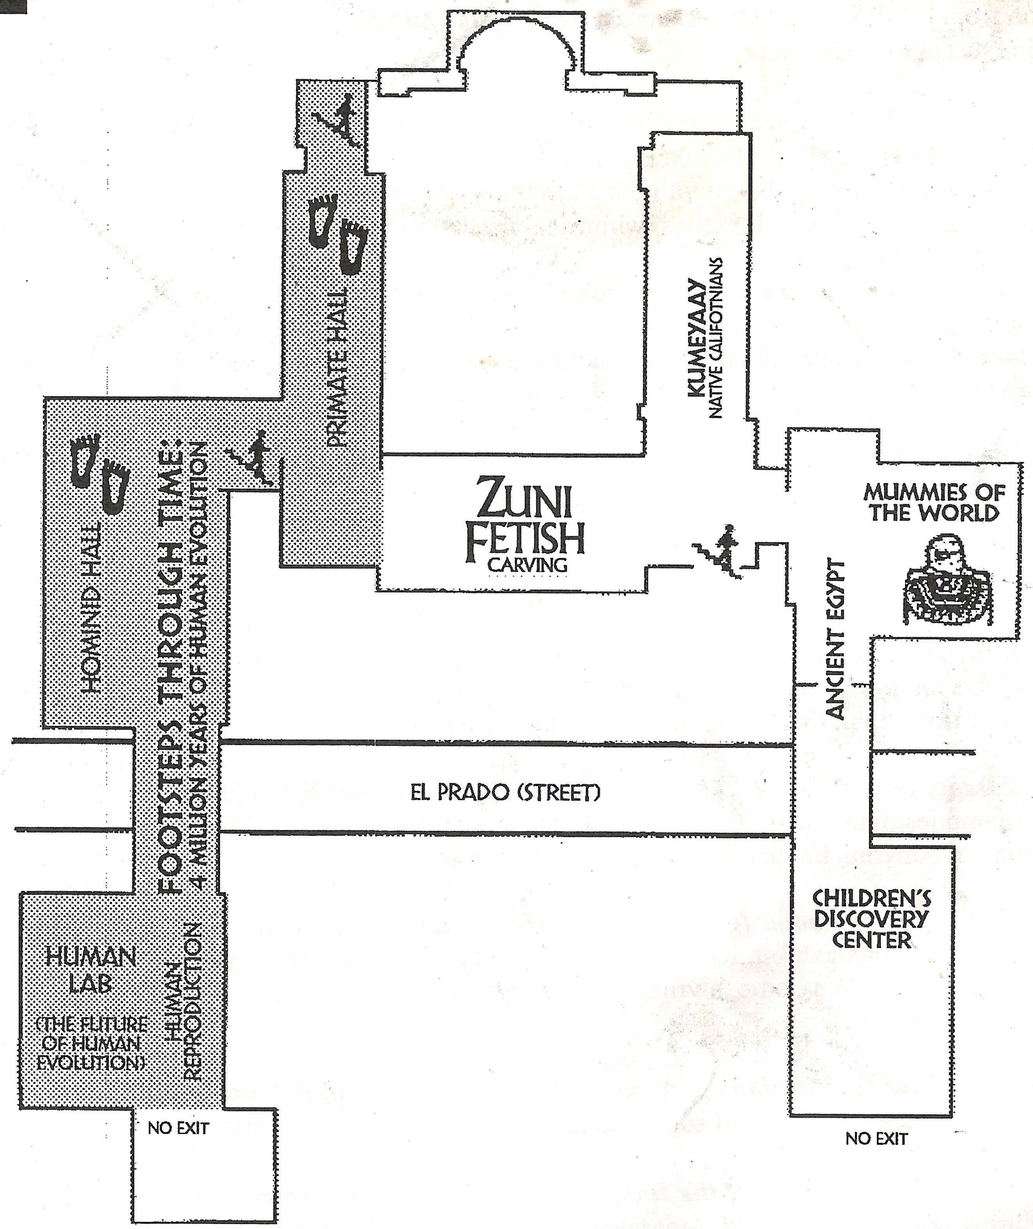
SPECIAL EVENTS:

www.museumofman.org

1 ST FLOOR EXHIBITS



2 ND FLOOR EXHIBITS



SAN DIEGO MUSEUM OF MAN

OPEN DAILY
10:00 A.M.—4:30 P.M.