Family Reunion 2005 Malad Summit

Family

What a great reunion!!!! It was amazing! I know you all got together in 2004, but this was the first year in a long time that Lynn and I were together with so many at a fun reunion. We had a total of 39 and missed the 7 who were not there. But, all-in-all, it was a great turnout.

Eating

The meals were great and we had lots of variety. Meatball Subs, Navajo Tacos, Chicken, Pork Tenderloin. Great salads. And wonderful breakfasts! AND, without a doubt, the easiest was breakfast on fast Sunday!

Of course, some of us couldn't stay awake long enough to eat.

Don't worry, the rest of us made up for it.

Socializing

We all enjoyed being together and everyone got along very well.

Small cousins:

Middle Sized Ones

And bigger ones too:

Sleeping:

We took part in many fun activities. But sleeping seemed to be one of the most popular. And we proved that some people can sleep ANYWHERE!!!!

Service:

But, most important, our reunion was one of service. When the suggestion was made to eliminate the Christmas present giving for adults and older teenage kids and to contribute the money to do service projects for worthy causes I thought it was a great idea. I just didn't have a clue how REALLY great it would be. Absolutely everyone got into the spirit.

Quilting: We had some of the most unexpected quilters and boy, did they do a great job!

Hats: We all enjoyed making hats! We hope they'll keep someone nice and warm.

Painting: We painted blocks. ALL colors! We had a regular assembly line going. We discovered talents we didn't know we had. (Like getting paint in unusual places.)

Chick Flick! Who says girls can't watch a good movie AND work on worthwhile projects. Here we are doing it!

We made cloth blocks while we watched "Wives and Daughters" (one of Jenny's movies.) We got a LOT done and had lots of togetherness at the same time. (When you're that close it's together-ness!)

But--best of all, we showed Heavenly Father, and each other, our gratitude to Him for our many blessings by going to Church and worshipping Him. (On time too!) We have so much to be grateful for--our country, our freedom, our homes, our health, our testimonies and most of all, our FAMILY!

Thank you, children and grandchildren for a wonderful reunion!
