INFORMATION

First Aid: Station located at the park exit and staffed with a nurse or EMT. For immediate assistance, ask the nearest park host. Automatic External Defibrillators (AEDs) are available throughout the park. Please refer to the park map for exact locations.

Guests with Disabilities: SeaWorld provides special parking, restrooms, telephones and access to shows, exhibits and meal facilities for guests with disabilities. All shows and select attractions have assistive listening devices. Ask any park host for help. Access brochure available at the Information Center.

Seagulls: Seagulls in the park can be aggressive. Please do not feed seagulls or leave small children alone with food. SeaWorld replaces purchased food stolen or damaged by seagulls.

Information Center: Located at the entrance, the Information Center has general park and Southern California information and can help with special requests. Fax and TDD available.

Lost Children/Lost & Found: Visit the Information Center to report lost children and items. Ask any park host for assistance. SeaWorld is not responsible for lost, missing or stolen personal property.

Re-entry: Hand stamp for same-day return is available at park exit.

Safety: It is the responsibility of each adult, parent, guardian or chaperone to supervise those under your care while in the park. Because SeaWorld provides a variety of shows, exhibits and play activities, please consider the age, maturity, strength, weight, or other special features of people under your care when choosing a particular activity.

Reminder: Some of our shows and attractions get very wet, especially in the lower rows. Please be careful to protect your camera, electronic equipment and small children from splashes. SeaWorld is an open-air park exposed to the elements. Please pay attention while walking on pathways, ramps and stairs. Running is not permitted in the park.

Smoking: For your convenience, SeaWorld provides Designated Smoking Areas. Please refer to the park map for directions to these areas.

Strollers and Wheelchairs: Available for rent at the park entrance for a nominal fee. For safety reasons all strollers must be parked outside of most exhibits and attractions. SeaWorld is not responsible for strollers or
